MRS. REDMOND ENDS VISIT TO SON IN CHINA

HONG KONG, Oct. 30--Mrs. Hugh F. Redmond of Yonkers returned here today after a visit to her son Hugh Jr., who is serving a life sentence in Shanghai prison. She is hopeful that he will be released "one day."

Mrs. Redmond who is 65 years old and a widow, has visited her son twice before, and on each occasion appealed to the Chinese Communist authorities for his early release. Her latest appeal had not been answered at the time she left China.

Mr. Redmond was in the export business in Shanghai when he was arrested on espionage charges in 1951. He was 44 years old today.

Mrs. Redmond saw her son four times for periods of two hours each during her two-week stay. She said he was a little thinner but alert and had not lost his sense of humor. She said he needed winter clothing, which she bought in Shanghai.

She said the food situation appeared better in Shanghai than on her previous visits.

Her son is one of four American civilians imprisoned in Communist China.
